PRESS RELEASE

d'AMICO INTERNATIONAL SHIPPING S.A. ANNOUNCES CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER TRANSITION

Luxembourg - October 15th, 2026 - d'Amico International Shipping SA announces that Flemming Carlsen, Chief Operating Officer, has decided to step down from his position and will leave the Group in the coming weeks.

During his tenure at d'Amico, Flemming Carlsen has made a significant contribution to the development and commercial management of the Group's tanker business, playing an important role in strengthening its market position through his extensive industry knowledge, commercial expertise and dedication.

Effective 15 November 2026, Mark Roberts, currently Senior Chartering Manager, will assume the role of Chief Operating Officer.
Mark Roberts brings extensive experience in the tanker industry and has been with d'Amico for more than twenty years, during which he has developed an in-depth understanding of the Group's business, commercial operations and markets. His appointment reflects the Group's commitment to developing internal talent and ensuring continuity in its leadership.

Carlos Balestra di Mottola, Chief Executive Officer of d'Amico International Shipping SA, commented:
"On behalf of the entire Group, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Flemming Carlsen for his valuable contribution over the years. His expertise, commercial insight and commitment have played an important role in the development of our business and in strengthening our position in the tanker market. We are grateful for his dedication and wish him all the very best for the future.
I am also very pleased to announce Mark Roberts's appointment as our new Chief Operating Officer. Having worked with the Group for a long period, Mark Roberts brings extensive industry experience, deep knowledge of our business and a proven track record in managing our commercial activities. His appointment ensures operational continuity and reflects our confidence in the strength of our internal talent. I am confident that Mark Roberts, together with his team, will continue to build on our achievements and successfully lead our operations in the years ahead."
