Tight management of our operations

Strict cost discipline

- Continuous cost saving actions
  - Leveraging global footprint in procurement
  - Tightening operational expenses
  - Streamlining of the organization (~3%/yr headcount reduction over the next 3 years)
- Yield and energy efficiency improvement programs in place, savings to progressively ramp-up with the volumes
- Objective of offsetting fixed cost inflation again in 2026

Rigorous cash management

- Disciplined capex allocation
  - Capex < €600m in 2026
  - Leaving space for targeted investments in attractive markets
- Tight working capital management
  - Context of rising raw materials
  - Good ratio at 15.8% of annualized sales at end-June 2026
- Net debt broadly stable YoY at end-June 2026 confirming the solidity of the balance sheet in weak market conditions

Second-quarter 2026 results

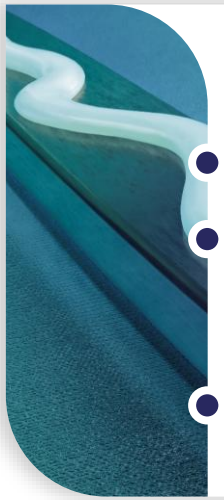

Extract from “Second-quarter 2026 results and outlook” presentation (30 July 2026)

Q2’26 key takeaways

Sales	EBITDA	Adjusted net income	Recurring cash flow
€2,428m	€391m	€129m	€78m
Organic growth of 3.2% YoY	+7.4% YoY 16.1% EBITDA margin	Adj. EPS €1.70 (+7% YoY)	WC at 15.8% of annualized sales

- No material change in global demand compared to previous quarters
- A few pockets of growth continuing to contribute meaningfully, in particular batteries, electronics and 3D printing, with around 15% sales increase
- Sharp raw material costs increase leading to swift pricing adjustments to offset input cost inflation
- Solid growth of EBITDA at €391m, mostly supported by the performances of Adhesives and Coatings, including €10m FX headwind
- Robust recurring cash flow benefiting from tight working capital management and lower Capex YoY in line with the €600m annual target

Arkema’s Q2 performance driven by Adhesives and Coatings

Adhesive Solutions

- Strong EBITDA at €111m, up 7.3% YoY
- Solid volumes growth in durable goods, subdued demand in packaging and construction
- Improvement of mix and pricing actions

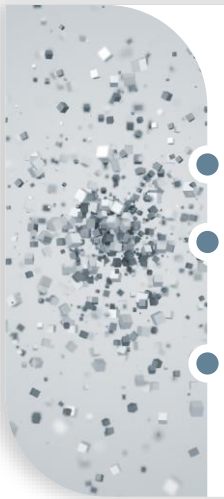

Coating Solutions

- Significant growth in EBITDA, standing at €78m, up in both resins and additives
- Refocused portfolio towards higher value-added applications
- Swift adjustment of pricing

Advanced Materials

- EBITDA at €163m
- HPP EBITDA broadly stable supported by new business developments and strong achievements of PIAM and PVDF
- Weaker Performance Additives in the context of the Middle East crisis

Primary Materials

- EBITDA at €58m
- Improvement of acrylic spreads, although back to low levels in Asia
- Decline, as expected, of old-generation refrigerant gases
